

Birmingham is READY FOR YOU

Every year, Birmingham becomes a spot on more and more maps as a rising travel and career destination. And it makes sense, with offerings in food, arts, culture and industry you just won't find anywhere else.

Condé Nast Traveler named Birmingham one of "The Best 22 Places to Go in 2022"

THE NEXT BIG CITY

Arts

Whether you're looking for an on-stage performance, art galleries and film festivals or even a vibrant mural, it's hard to beat the creativity in the Magic City.

Dining

From barbecue and soul food to food trucks and the Pizitz Food Hall, you're sure to find the perfect eatery for you.

Music

Some of history's most famous musicians got their start here. Whether you want to see someone before they hit it big or catch one of today's headliners, we have plenty to offer in Birmingham.

Parks

Birmingham's already massive greenspace is about to get even bigger, with Oak Mountain State Park acquiring enough land to double the size of New York City's Central Park.

Sports

Check out Birmingham's sports scene, from the major league to minor league, and be sure to catch one of UAB's own highly ranked teams playing!

History

At the heart of the Civil Rights movement, learn about Birmingham's history and local heroes at the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute and other museums throughout the city.

Birmingham tech boom

Birmingham is a top up-and-coming tech market, with numerous successful startups launching, such as Shipt, a grocery delivery service, and Daxko, a software for health and wellness organizations.
