

Applicant Declaration Form

We're committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment that fosters student success, and our review of non-academic conduct is one component (authorized by C.R.S. 23-5-106.5). Applicants who answer "Yes" to one of more of the conduct questions below receive confidential outside of the admission decision process. Past non-academic conduct incidents do not automatically disqualify an applicant from full consideration for admission and scholarships, and applicants have the right to appeal a decision made based on any information required to be disclosed here.

Are there any pending criminal charges against you?  Yes  No

Do you have any prior convictions* OR prior disciplinary history at another academic institution (including pending disciplinary proceedings) for stalking, sexual assault and/or domestic violence?

Yes  No

Have you had any convictions* within the past five years for assault, kidnapping, voluntary manslaughter or murder?  Yes  No

*This means a conviction by a jury verdict or by entry of a verdict or acceptance of a guilty plea or a plea of nolo contendere by a court. It does not include a plea to a deferred judgement and sentence until the deferred judgement and sentence is revoked. You are not required to disclose any information contained in sealed records.

If you answered "Yes" to any of the questions above, provide a concise explanation that includes the date(s) of the incident(s), details regarding what happened, when and where the incident(s) occurred, and who was involved. Note which charges, if any, are pending. In cases of conviction and/or disciplinary action, specify what convictions, charges or sanctions (if any) were brought upon you as a result, what penalty/ remedy was assessed (if applicable) and how the situation has resolved.

It is also important to touch on what you've learned from your experience and what changes, if any, have resulted.

Your response will be reviewed by our Student Resolution Center (SRC) before your application is reviewed for an admission decision, and additional information may be requested by SRC as needed.
